

The New Zealand International Business Forum, in partnership with MinterEllisonRuddWatts, is pleased to invite you to attend the launch of an exciting new report “Wanted! New Free Trade Agreement Partners: Identifying options for New Zealand’s next tranche of trade negotiations”.

A number of key agreements have been completed in recent years. Others are in the pipeline. Where might we look for new partners as we seek to create more options for exporters? What might future trade agreements include? This report will make an important contribution to debate about the future direction of New Zealand trade policy.

This event will take place simultaneously at the Auckland and Wellington offices of MERW from 12.00pm - 2.00pm on Tuesday 29th June, and will include a buffet lunch.

The report’s author, John Ballingall from Sense Partners, will present the report, followed by a discussion with a panel of trade experts as below and Q&A.

Moderator: Stephen Jacobi, Executive Director, NZIBF

Panel: Jenny McGregor (Fonterra), Esther Guy-Meakin (Meat Industry Association), Stephanie Honey (NZIBF/ABAC), Michael Fox (Zespri)

There is limited seat availability in both locations so please register promptly. We hope you can join us.
